Pandemic poverty and promoting recovery of coping, such as through migration or access to health services, causing his wellbeing to deteriorate over time.

Mitigation measures for pro-poor recovery

Data source: CPAN (2023) Chronic Poverty Report: Pandemic Poverty. www.chronicpovertynetwork.org. The report draws on CPAN's Poverty Monitoring Initiative 2020-23 comprising life histories and key informant interviews (KIIs) in Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Ethiopia, India, Kenya, Malawi, Nepal, the Philippines, Rwanda, Tanzania, Zambia, Zimbabwe; additional KIIs in 2022/23 in a subset of countries plus South Africa and Nicaragua; analysis of High Frequency Phone Surveys during the pandemic in a subset of countries plus Nigeria; survey of literature.